8TH ANNUAL

AUTISM CONFERENCE 2015

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SEAN BARRON

- Diagnosed with classic autism in January 1967 at age 5 after having exhibited nearly all of the 14 most common signs.
- Doctors recommended that he be institutionalized
- Now considers himself recovered from Autism
- Journalist for 14 years for The Vindicator, the Youngstown, Ohio
- 21 years of speaking at countless autism-related gatherings
- Co-author of “There’s a Boy in Here”.
- Author of pending Civil Rights book "A Handshake is More Powerful than a Fist”.

CONFERENCES BREAK OUT SESSIONS:

Sean Barron and Barbara Protopapa
Social Skills Development Training for Parents and Educators of children with Autism

Kimberly Mills, Ph.D., BCBA-D
Effective Teaching Practices for students with Autism and Research Into the findings from Phase II of the National Autism Center’s National Standards Project

ST. CROIX
April 20, 2015
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
University of the Virgin Islands
North West Wing Great Hall

ADVANCED REGISTRATION: http://events.viucedd.org
340-776-9200 ext 2334 (STT)
340-692-4267 (STX)

ST. THOMAS
April 22, 2015
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
University of the Virgin Islands
Administrative & Conference Center