The Chair of the Committee noted that most trustees have not been filing a disclosure form each fiscal year as prescribed by Section VII of the Conflict of Interest and Disclosure Policy for the Board of Trustees. To facilitate compliance with the policy, Ms. Gail Steele was asked to forward the necessary form to each trustee each year before the form is due. Trustees will be required to submit completed forms to Ms. Steele.

The Committee reviewed two remaining governor-appointed vacancies on the Board and discussed possible candidates for the positions for Board recommendation to the Governor. B. Update on Implementation of VISION 2012

Dr. Haldane Davies presented a report indicating that work is progressing aggressively on all of the objectives outlined in VISION 2012 for 2007 and that they are expected to be completed as planned. He emphasized the importance of measuring the impact of activities on stakeholders and that an expert in the area of institutional effectiveness will be providing UVI with assistance in developing processes and procedures to assess the impact of VISION 2012. The Committee requested preparation of a yearly closeout report as implementation of VISION 2012 occurs. The Committee discussed the need to establish baseline data now, expressed concern about the use of the term “Leap Frog” in reference to professional development and spoke of the need for constituents to agree with changes that are made as a result of implementation of VISION 2012.

C. Report from the President

Dr. Ragster shared the present organizational chart of the University and Provost Dr. A. I. Musah made a presentation of the status of academic restructuring. He indicated the restructuring did not produce the cost savings that were expected and that the implementation of the compensation plan had an impact on this.

The need to maintain focus on the objectives of realignment of programs was discussed and the President indicated that even as realignment takes place the University must respond to outside issues with respect to compliance that impact the way change and realignment are addressed. There was discussion of the assessment of changes that are being made within the University and the incorporation of findings from these assessments in the realignment. Dr. Ragster agreed to present an informational report on realignment and restructuring planned for the near future to the Committee in advance of the Board’s June meeting.

A consultant’s report on the University’s efforts in responding to the concerns raised by the U. S. Department of Education with respect to compliance with Title IV regulations was presented. Student financial aid involving over $18M was reviewed by the University because of these concerns. UVI has been recertified to receive Title IV funds until 2009 and progress is being made to remove the University from heightened cash management status. The Committee urged caution in the use of information provided by the consultants and Dr. Ragster indicated that it was common practice to use information from consultants as a resource for decision making, and therefore not all of the information provided by consultants is used nor all of their recommendations followed.

No Action Required.
D. Review of Academic Restructuring

Provost Musah explained the restructuring alignment process with respect to reconfiguring Academic Affairs to respond to new challenges in the fall and the process by which measures of success will be developed and independent assessments made. He stressed that assessments would be done by outside reviewers using objectives provided by UVI and that the assessments would be not only of Academic Affairs but also of other University components after the final structure of Academic Affairs is in place.
