BANK RESOLUTION

(Board of Trustees Meeting, November 30, 1980)

Dr. Richards presented the following Bank Resolution to the Board and briefly explained that its purpose was (1) to notify the banks of the change in name of officers and the number of signatures required on checks, and (2) to authorize the Secretary to notify the banks of changes in officers.

The Board unanimously agreed that the Bank Resolution be adopted and that the Secretary promptly notify the Banks of the change of officers and persons who would be the signatories; and that there be an automatic notification each year after there is an election of officers whether or not there is a change so that the banks would have up-to-date information as to who are authorized and who hold the offices and current spaces and therefore who may sign the checks.
