UNIVERSITY OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS STAFF COUNCIL

I. NAME
The name of this representative body shall be the University of the Virgin Islands Staff Council (UVISC).

II. MISSION
The mission of the UVISC is to:
1. Represent the rights/privileges of Full-time Regular, Professional and Administrative Staff (hereinafter referred to in this document as “Staff”) relating to work conditions and benefits;
2. Promote communication between staff, students, faculty and administration at UVI;
3. Act to promote the general welfare of the Staff as it relates to the University and act as a vehicle to promote better understanding, cooperation, and communication within the campus community for the benefit and betterment of all;
4. Review policies and procedures and make recommendations to the appropriate senior administrator and/or the President of the University of the Virgin Islands on interests, issues, policies, and concerns that affect staff members;
5. Enhance the University and the community it serves, through the participation of Staff in meetings, discussions, and all matters that will contribute to the sustenance and continual advancement of this institution;
6. Encourage a sense of community among all University employees.

III. MEMBERHIP REQUIREMENTS
1. The UVISC shall consist of all full-time regular, professional, and administrative staff members. Included in this group are employees covered under the hourly Pay Plan and the salaried Pay Plan. Not included in this group are: student and work-study employees; teaching faculty, including non-tenured categories, graduate teaching, service, or student research assistants; temporary instruction employees; individuals with service contracts not intended for renewal.

2. The officers of the UVISC Committee are thirteen (13), as detailed in Section VI. At the start of the academic calendar year, the UVISC Committee shall ask the Human Resources Department to provide printouts to determine staff eligibility for nominations.
3. The officers of the UVISC Executive Committee are nine (9). The UVISC Executive Committee shall consist of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, regular staff representative (2), professional staff representative (2) and administrative staff representative (2).

IV. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS PROCEDURES
A. Terms of Office

1. The term of office for UVISC Committee officers shall begin with the August meeting – 4th Tuesday in August - of the UVISC to coincide with the University academic calendar and provide time for appointments to committees meeting early in the fall term. A term shall be no more than two (2) years and a member can be elected for two consecutive terms. After serving four (4) consecutive years, an individual may not be re-elected as a UVISC Committee officer until a minimum of one (1) year has passed.

2. If a member is elected to the UVISC Committee to serve out an unexpired term vacated by another officer, the individual may complete that term and be elected to two additional terms.

3. In the inaugural year, UVISC Committee officers shall be elected to an interim one-year term. In succeeding years, the election of officers shall be staggered to ensure leadership continuity. Officers shall be grouped as follows:

Group 1: Chair
Secretary
Regular Staff Representative (STX)
Professional Staff Representative (STT)
Administrative Staff Representative (STX)
Chair, Communications Committee
Chair, Elections/Nominations Committee

Group 2: Vice Chair
Regular Staff Representative (STT)
Professional Staff Representative (STX)
Administrative Staff Representative (STT)
Chair, Human Resources Committee
Chair, Membership Committee

The second year’s elections shall result in the following term lengths:
Group I officers shall serve a two-year term
Group 2 officers shall serve a one-year term.
This shall establish a staggered cycle of election. Hereafter, each elected officer shall serve a two year term. Again, officers may not serve more than two consecutive terms during a regular election cycle.

B. Attendance/Removal from Office

1. UVISC Committee officers are expected to attend regularly scheduled meetings. Possible causes of removal from office shall include, but not limited to:
   a. unexcused absences from attending two (2) consecutive regularly scheduled meetings. An absent UVISC Committee officer not meeting the provisions required to have an excused absence will have an unexcused absence.

   Provisions for excused absence include:
   - illness
   - death or serious illness in family
   - religious holidays requiring absence
   - off-island
   - jury duty
   - approved/required work-related business

   b. When a UVISC Committee officer receives an active disciplinary action or written warning for unsatisfactory job performance or unacceptable personal conduct in accordance with Section VI of the UVI Human Resources Policy on Disciplines, Grievance and Appeals Process.

   c. When a UVISC Committee officer transfers to another position classification.

2. Upon recommendation from the UVISC, a UVISC Committee officer may keep his/her seat when placed in a temporary or interim position. If a UVISC Committee officer loses UVISC membership, the UVISC Committee may appoint the person from the classification with the next highest number of votes in the previous elections as a replacement, with approval of the majority of the UVISC Committee.

C. Voting Rights:

1. UVISC Committee officers (13) shall be elected by the staff membership as defined below.

2. The UVISC Committee shall be elected each year at the June meeting by nomination and a majority vote of the total UVISC present.
3. A minimum of 30 UVISC members is required to establish quorums for regular meetings. Votes shall pass and carry by a 50% +1 affirmative vote of the total UVISC membership votes received. UVISC members can vote via e-mail, audio/video conferencing methods.

D. Nominations and Election Procedures
The nominations and elections process shall be handled each year by the Election Committee, which shall be accountable to the UVISC Committee. The nominations and election process shall begin in March. New UVISC Committee officers begin their terms with the August meeting.

1. Nomination Procedures
   a. In a timely manner, the Election Committee will request from the Office of Human Resources the list of names from which to determine UVISC members eligible for nomination and the appropriate contact information for those staff members.
   b. All UVISC members meeting eligibility requirements (as defined in Article III) by the date of elections shall be eligible to vote.
   c. A nomination form shall be mailed to each UVISC member by name to her/his check distribution address. The form shall identify the classification, state the number of nominations allowed, and provide instructions for the return of the form (manner, date, time, and place). Nominations of candidates for election to the UVISC Committee shall be in writing.
   d. After the closing date of nominations, the Election Committee shall tally the nominations.
   e. The Elections Committee shall notify the nominees that their names will be placed on the election ballots unless they withdraw by a specified date.
   f. The number of nominees to appear on the election ballot in each classification shall not exceed three times the number of vacancies in that unit, except in the case of ties.

2. Elections Procedures
   a. An election form shall be mailed to each staff member by name to his or her check distribution address. The form shall identify the classification, list the nominees by name, state how many seats are to be filled in the classification, and provide instructions and a deadline for returning the form.
b. After the closing date of the election, the Election Committee shall tally the votes with the person(s) receiving the highest number of votes established as the elected UVISC Committee officer or officers from the classification. In the case of a tie, there shall be a runoff election within ten (10) days, and the winner shall be the candidate with the highest number of votes.

c. The Election Committee shall notify the nominees that they have been elected and confirm that they are willing to serve. A final list of UVISC Committee officers shall will be presented at the close of the election and confirmation shall be made public through widely circulated University publications within one (1) week of the final tally.

d. All records pertaining to the election process shall be maintained by the Secretary of the UVISC Committee until the next election is over.
