

EVERY YOUNGSTER WHO DESERVES TO GO TO
CVI OUGHT TO BE ABLE TO GO

(Board of Trustees Meeting, June 4-6, 1962)

It was a consensus of opinion that every youngster who deserved to go to CVI ought to be able to go; price should not stand in the way of attendance. Students would not be required to live in the dormitory, but every effort would be made to encourage at least 60% of them to do so. As much as possible, costs of room and board would be defrayed by scholarships and loans.
